

红军村 云深圆美梦

Red Army Village Realizing Dream in deep clouds

5月26日，桑植县龙潭坪镇红军村云头山云雾缭绕，蔚为壮观。山脊在旭日的映衬下更显挺拔，成为航拍摄影的又一好去处。

红军村由毛垭、桥头、云头山三村合并而成。上世纪30年代，这个仅30户100多人的村庄，有30多人参加了贺龙领导的红军。这里高耸入云的山头，在烽烟密布的战争年代是保护革命火种的天然屏障，在脱贫致富的小康路上，则是隔绝信息、阻碍发展的壁垒。山路修通后，大山变成了金山银山。如今，红军村通过走野生粽叶+人工种植粽叶的发展路子，乡亲们的小日子发生了翻天覆地的变化。

On May 26th, Clouds and mist were spectacular, coiled up on Yuntou Mountain in Red Army Village of Longtanping Township, Sangzhi County. The ridge of the mountain is more upright under the rising sun, making it another good place for aerial photography.

The Red Army village is formed by three villages, Mao Ya, Qiaotou and Yuntoushan. In the 1930s, more than 30 people in this village with just 30 households and 100 people joined the Red Army under the leadership of He Long. The towering hills here were a natural barrier to protect the fires of the revolution during the war years, but a barrier to hinder information and development on the road to overcome poverty and achieve prosperity. After the mountain road was repaired, the mountain turned into a silver mountain. Nowadays, by taking the development path of wild dumpling leaves + artificially planted dumpling leaves, the cozy and happy life of the villagers has undergone a radical change.
